October 2024

The mission of Anchor Bible Church is to love God, love people, and make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Head to Heart

The other day Luella and I were running errands and out of the blue she asked me “Dad, how far away is heaven?” It took me a minute to process and put it into six year old terms because the Lord’s Word has a lot to say about heaven. In fact the imagery of heaven is very vivid from that of a garden, to a wedding banquet, a house with many rooms and more. But the greatest picture of all is captured not by what the setting will be but who is there!

We talked for some time in the car about what heaven will be like and I did my best to explain it to her. She went on to explain to me why she asked that question and it had come from uncle Craig’s funeral. Amy’s uncle had just passed away and at the visitation Luella walked up to his casket with us. As curiosity and tears mixed the question she had is one many ponder or find themselves on the opposite side by trying not to think about.

I began to explain to Luella that we are souls who have a body. When we have a saving relationship with Jesus, even if our earthly bodies die now, our souls are ushered into the presence of God. Biblically, the picture we are given in this state is paradise (in the Greek language it is translated as that of a garden- cue the old hymn “In The Garden”) At the time of resurrection our souls will be reunited with our heavenly body, perfect in every way. That sparked her next question. “Dad, when the resurrection happens will we be in our kid bodies or adult bodies?”

My only response was “We will know when it happens!” But the important thing is who is there. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and all of those who in their faith have gone on before us! “Dad, that will be awesome!”

When I recall this special conversation with Luella it brings me to the heart of the Gospel every time. We must be prepared in season and out of season to preach the Word (2 Timothy 4:2 NIV). I’m sure many of you have heard the analogy that one of the furthest distances known is 18 inches. That’s the distance from our head to our hearts.

Often we come to moments in life that we try and think our way to a justification. Jesus teaches us not only to think with reason but to believe in our hearts. Which is the core mission/calling of every Christian, “Love thy Lord God with all your heart, soul, and mind.”

The question then arises what areas of our lives have we submitted to the Lord? One part or every aspect of our lives? May it be all of ourselves that is submitted to the Lord and ready in all times. Afterall, we may never know at what point a conversation would take place to explain or point others to the truth of the Gospel!

*God Bless and Keep You,

AUGUST 2024

August General Fund contributions were $26,143 with expenses of $30,348. Expenses were higher than normal due to the $5,000 for Jerry Rozeboom to attend the conference in Costa Rica. In past years, as part of the UMC, this cost was picked up by the UMC. The new GMC does not have the funds to pay for all the US delegates to attend, so the local church needed to fund this. YTD after 8 months, the General Fund is break even, expenses = contributions. Building Fund giving was $4,271 and another principal only loan payment of $7,500 was made!!! Loan balance is $402,150.

Unsolicited Advice About Shoeboxes

by Katie Garrett, SIM Senegal

May 11, 2015

<http://garrett.with.sim.org/index.php/archives/1675>

First, I can't believe a year has already passed since we were part of giving shoebox gifts to the kids in our Sunday school last May! How is that possible?!

Second, let me say that I know that each of these gifts is prepared with love and given from hearts full of generosity, compassion, and a desire to share Jesus' love. And each one is SO appreciated! No matter what is inside the box, each child (and family) is excited and blessed to receive a gift, given with no strings attached. For the local kids here, this is so unexpected, so unusual... Kids here do not get presents on Christmas or on their birthdays (if they are even aware of those days!). And most are only rarely given new things or presents at all. So to receive a box of gifts like this is such a treat.

You may or may not be aware of how Samaritan's Purse runs this project. They partner with churches and missions who are involved in children's ministry. So in our case, a leader of the denomination of our local church attended the Samaritan's Purse training meeting a few months ago to learn the parameters and the process. He requested boxes for the children in our Sunday school and the request was granted. So this past Sunday we had the fun of giving each child a shoebox after church along with a booklet. The booklet is written in the form of a comic book, and it tells the story (in French) of some children learning about the greatest gift of all - Jesus! The booklets are well done and thoughtfully appropriate for our context - and super cool!

Now, given all that, can I offer some feedback to those of you who will prepare shoeboxes this Christmas? I can't remember how many times we have been involved, directly or indirectly, here in Senegal with the distribution of shoeboxes, but it is at least half a dozen times over the past 15 years. I have watched little people I know well open their boxes, ooh'ed and aah'ed with them over the contents, and answered their questions about some of the items. Every year, I have thought of giving some advice on this topic, but I don't want to seem ungrateful or critical. I just want to offer my advice, based on our experience in this one context:

BEST GIFTS:

- For any age boy here, what they really want is a soccer ball. So get the best quality mini soccer ball that you can fit into the box when it is inflated (or send a deflated ball with a pump) and you can basically forget about anything else! :)
- Brand new nice short-sleeved shirts (with no writing on them) for boys and girls. Kids here have few clothes and often wear old, ripped, hand-me-downs, so nice new shirts are really appreciated and will probably fit. (I don't know any obese Senegalese kids.)
- Small flashlight with batteries (Most families don't have electricity so a working flashlight is gold!)
- Good quality melamine plate, bowl, and/or cup (Practical and also special.)
- Soap AND a plastic soap dish that has a cover. When you bathe standing on a big rock in the dirt as kids do here, you really need the soap holder. And families never have enough soap. (Funny note: the kids didn't know what the soap was because it was in a box. I am sure they would have figured it out though, even without our help.)
- Toothbrush in a toothbrush holder. Again, the plastic case for the toothbrush is really great when you don't have a sink/counter/tiled bathroom but rather brush your teeth outside squatting over dirt and need to keep it in your room.
- Pencils, erasers, colored pencils, and sharpeners for all school-aged kids. And good quality pens for kids aged 10-14, in black, red, green, and blue. All of these are required for school and the ones from America last so much longer than the cheap ones available here.

Operation Christmas Child

GREAT GIFTS:

- Jump ropes
- Band-Aids
- Comb
- Hair elastics or head bands for girls
- Marbles
- Harmonica
- A simple watch for older kids
- A solar calculator for older kids
- Sunglasses for older kids
- Socks
- For the youngest girls, a baby doll with light brown skin and no hair (good for a child of any color)
- Toy car, truck or airplane for the youngest boys (The ones with bigger wheels that are made for toddlers and are larger than Matchbox size are good. Matchbox wheels are so small, they don't work well in dirt.)

NOT AS GOOD items we have seen kids receive:

- Anything with instructions in English, even if it seems simple to you (We tried to explain to one girl who got a cool pair of markers that came with a clip so you could draw with them both at the same time and a set of paper 3-D glasses you then used to see what you drew in 3-D... but it didn't make sense. And how do you even say 3-D in Wolof??)
- Any toy that is not universally recognizable (We have seen kids receive matching memory card games - a great idea but with no one to explain it to them, they are wasted.)
- Yo-yo's (They don't know what it is here.)
- Gloves, winter hats (You don't know whether your box will end up in Siberia or Senegal.)
- Play-dough (Kids here have no idea what it is for.)
- Stuffed animals (Young kids here usually burst into tears when presented with stuffed animals from their shoeboxes. The kids who are old enough not to be scared are not interested. Also, animals carry meanings here that are culturally specific. One of our Sunday School kids got a cute stuffed owl and a much older sibling told me that he himself is terrified of owls. They connote evil and shapechangers. You can't know what the animal will signify in the culture your box reaches.)

- Stickers or temporary tattoos (Kids don't have anywhere to stick the stickers, and often the pictures don't make sense or connect with their world. For example, cute puppy stickers don't make much sense in a Muslim country because dogs are considered unclean in Islam.)
- T-shirts with words or pictures on them (Would you want to wear a shirt with something unknown written on it? And again, pictures have different meanings in different cultures. Stick with solid colors, stripes, or pretty designs.
- Anything cheap or fragile (One box had a white skinned, red-haired porcelain doll in it...)
- Two of the 10-year old boys in our Sunday School class got adult sized XL t-shirts in their boxes that were obviously left over from an event. They were brand new and will be worn by some adult in the household, but in my opinion, they would have been better donated to Good Will or the Salvation Army. Approach filling a shoebox like you would approach picking out a gift for a friend's child, not as an opportunity to unload stuff you don't want.

That's my unsolicited advice on this topic; I hope you find it helpful!

October is Pastor Appreciation Month and we would like to bless and honor Pastor Andrew and Pastor Tyler this month for all they do for us and for the Lord.

Here are ways to show them our appreciation:

- Pray for them and their families.
- Show them and their families with cards/notes of appreciation and encouragement.
- Volunteer your time. Volunteer to serve on a consistent basis if you don't already. It will make their day. They will appreciate the support every time you serve.
- Celebrate their wives. Remember that being a pastor's wife is challenging. Thank her for all that she does because she does a lot.

- Gift Cards for a night out or to their favorite places:

Pastor Andrew: Fleet Farm, Menards, Aldi, Apple Creek Coffee Co., or anywhere they serve steaks.

Pastor Tyler: Target, Starbucks, Apple Creek Coffee Co., Jams, Texas Roadhouse (or something similar for restaurants).

Remember to keep this a surprise.
Thank you!!!
