ANCHOR BIBLE CHURCH

November 2026

The mission of Anchor Bible Church is to love God, love people, and make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Wind and the Waves

There are moments and chapters in our lives that have a beginning and an end. The Lord tells us in Ecclesiastes that there is a time and a season for everything. It is not a secret, we as a church have been in a trying and difficult season.

In the Gospel of Mark chapter 4 is a memorable moment and one that we need to humbly listen to and put into action. The context of Mark chapter 4 comes by Jesus having his first confrontation with the religious leaders and even his own family.

Chapter 4 begins with a large crowd, a boat on the shore, and still waters. So many were present to listen to Jesus teach about the parable of the sower, a lamp on a stand, the parable of the growing seed, and the parable of the mustard seed.

Jesus presents the truth of the Kingdom of God by the seed (the Good News of Jesus Christ) being sown in different types of soil. Each soil type represents the condition of people's hearts. One type is that of a hard heart opposed to listening at all. The second is when persecution and suffering happen. The third type is when the Word is drowned out by the cares of the world. The final type of soil, you guessed right, produces a fruit some thirty, some sixty, some a hundred times what was sown.

It is obvious here that Jesus is speaking to the heart of every individual. Soil can't be changed like the human heart can. Jesus' teaching here crescendos from the condition of the heart to the life of the one who is of good soil. That life is like a lamp on a stand. Two more parables are given in connection here as well, the growing seed and the faith of a mustard seed.

Here is the bookend of Jesus' teaching; It's getting dark so Jesus and the disciples take a boat across the sea of Galilee, Jesus falls asleep while a large storm arises on the sea. The disciples (who had just heard Jesus' teaching) wake Jesus up from sleep because they were afraid for their lives.

"Quiet, Be still!" Jesus spoke to the wind and the waves then turned to the disciples and said "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?"

Surely we have been in a storm, rocked back and forth beaten by the wind and the waves together as a church. Remember this, Jesus is the only way, the only truth, and the only life. He is our only anchor in the midst of life. Keep the faith and never forget who's in the boat with us!

God bless you and keep you, Pastor Andrew Happ

Live Like Every Day Counts

Have you ever found yourself at a crossroads, wondering what's next? Maybe you've achieved success but still feel unfulfilled—or perhaps life has forced you into an unexpected season of change. Wherever you are, your next step matters.

In this six-session series, 3× All-American, College Football Hall of Famer, and award-winning ESPN commentator David Pollack shares the daily habits and biblical principles that have shaped his life on and off the field. Built around his signature philosophy, Every Day Counts, this study will equip you with practical strategies, inspiring personal stories, and a clear, faith-filled game plan for becoming the spouse, parent, professional, friend, and follower of Christ God created you to be.

When you honor God in the small, everyday choices, He transforms your life in extraordinary ways. Live every day for what matters most.

Come & See What You are Missing!

Proverbs 27:17 "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another."

November thoughts

November has a way of reminding us to slow down and reflect on the things we're thankful for. As the leaves fall and the days grow shorter, I find myself marveling about how much of God's work happens in ways we don't always notice.

Think about the people who have helped shape your faith. Maybe it was a Sunday school teacher who took the time to learn your name, someone who prayed for you when you were struggling, or a person who simply made you feel welcome when you walked through the church doors.

Often, those people never realize the difference they've made.

In 1 Corinthians 3:6, Paul writes, "I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow."

I love this reminder because it takes the pressure off us to see immediate results. God calls us to be faithful with what He's placed before us, even when we can't see what He's doing beneath the surface.

Sometimes faithfulness looks like teaching a child about Jesus. Sometimes it's showing up for someone who needs a friend. Other times, it is choosing patience, offering encouragement, or quietly praying for someone.

None of those things may seem extraordinary in the moment, but God can use them in extraordinary ways.

As we enter this season of Thanksgiving, I encourage you to think about the people who have planted seeds of faith in your own life. Maybe take a moment to thank them. And remember that you, too, have opportunities to plant seeds in the lives of others.

We may never fully see the impact of the love we share, the prayers we pray, or the kindness we extend. But God sees it all, and He is faithful to bring growth in His perfect timing.

This Thanksgiving, may we be grateful not only for the blessings we can see, but also for the quiet ways God is working all around us.

Anchored Life Groups

What is an Anchored Life Group?

An Anchored Life Group is a small group of 4 to 12 people who meet weekly to give testimony to and encourage one another in the pursuit of developing a robust, transformational relationship with the living God who cares deeply for each of us.

We have 3 types of groups; men's, women's, and couples. As we meet together for 1-1.5 hours per week we will be asking questions such as "How is it with your soul?" meaning "How is your life with Christ?" All members are asked to respond with the intention of learning how to examine and share about all areas of our life in relationship with Jesus.

Members in these groups will also challenge one another to apply themselves to keeping all the ordinances of God, such as Bible reading, praying, fellowship, attending church and consistent attendance of the group meeting.

Our Group Guidelines

We acknowledge our relationship with the Holy Spirit living within us as believers.

We need to be filled and led by the Holy Spirit who reveals the Word of God; Christ Jesus our Lord

We love one another and want to continually grow in relationship by doing life together.

Our presence in this group is just as important as being in church.

Please be mindful of time, it is important that everyone gets a chance to share.

(Early Stages of the Group)
Answering questions and sharing will become more natural when we do it.

Let's continue to learn how to interpret our lives through the lens of the gospel. This will result in us experiencing God throughout our days in new and deeper ways.

What is shared in this group stays in this group.

If you are interested in joining or leading an Anchored Life Group, please reach out to the church office or Pastor Andrew.
